

You Gotta Have Faith
Hebrews 10:35-11:1

Discussion Questions | Jeff Randleman | January 30, 2022

Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, "Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him." But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

– Hebrews 10:35-11:1 (ESV)

The following questions can be used for Small Group discussions or for personal reflection:

1. In this series, we will cover the five elements of salvation: faith, confession, repentance, baptism, and new life. Which of these are you most interested in learning about?
2. Explain the idea of faith as you understand it. Was your definition challenged by what we discussed in this message? How so?
3. How does faith play a part in our salvation?
4. Is your faith a "blind leap"? Or is it built upon evidence? What evidence has helped you develop your faith?
5. Why does faith require a response of obedience? How are you doing when it comes to this?
6. Does your faith give you certainty and assurance of God's trustworthiness?
7. What passages in the Bible help you to develop a stronger faith? Read Romans 10:13-14, 17 before answering.
8. What do you need to do next to strengthen your faith even further?
9. For further study, read the following Scriptures (used in today's message): Acts 16:16-34; James 2:17-19; John 3:36; Romans 10:13-14, 17; Romans 1:21; 1 Peter 3:5; John 20:30-31; Luke 16:27-31; Hebrews 10:35-11:1.
