

Hope Is Born Christmas 2022

The Certainty Of Hope Luke 1:26-38

Discussion Questions | Jeff Randleman | December 18, 2022

And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

- Luke 1:30-33 (ESV)

The following questions can be used for Small Group discussions or for personal reflection:

1. Read Luke 1:26-38. In what ways can you see that Christmas is a God-orchestrated event?
2. Can you relate to Mary's questions about what God is planning to do? How are Mary's questions different from Zechariah's doubt in Luke 1:18-20?
3. How have you seen the presence of God or the power of God in your life recently?
4. What promises from God do you need to be reminded of in this season of your life? Be open to suggestions from those close to you.
5. What limitations are you facing when it comes to making Christmas all it can be? How can you make yourself available to God and allow him to remove these limitations?
6. What is God doing in your life that requires you to faithfully follow his leading? Be specific.
7. For further study, read the following Scriptures (used in today's message): Luke 1:26-38; Ephesians 1:11; Philippians 2:6-7; Genesis 3:14-15; Titus 1:2; 1 John 1:9; 2 Corinthians 1:3-5; Philippians 4:19; Ephesians 3:20.
