

Unlikely Hero

A Study Of The Life Of David

Putting Things In Perspective

1 Samuel 24:1-22

Sermon Notes | Jeff Randleman | June 4, 2023

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

– Romans 8:18 (ESV)

Logic lets us see the _____; faith lets us see the _____.

Logic is a _____ perspective.

Faith is an _____ perspective.

An eternal perspective comes through _____.

An eternal perspective comes through consuming _____.

An eternal perspective _____.

An eternal perspective _____.

We show mercy in our _____.

We show mercy in our _____.

We show mercy in our _____.

Unlikely Hero

A Study Of The Life Of David

Putting Things In Perspective

1 Samuel 24:1-22

Discussion Questions | Jeff Randleman | June 4, 2023

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

– Romans 8:18 (ESV)

The following questions can be used for Small Group discussions or for personal reflection:

1. In what areas do you struggle the most when it comes to patience? In what areas do you most need to be patient?
2. Explain the difference between a temporary perspective and an eternal perspective. Which perspective do you display most often? What can you do to increase your eternal perspective? How did Jesus display an eternal perspective?
3. In what ways have you experienced faith? How has God displayed his trustworthiness to you? Be as practical as you can.
4. Do you consume God's Word? Why or why not? How can you grow in this area?
5. How well do you understand mercy?
6. How well do you display mercy... In your speech? In your actions? In your thoughts?
7. For further study, read and discuss the following Scriptures: Romans 5:6-11; Romans 8:18; Lamentations 3:22-26.