All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you.

– Psalm 22:27 (ESV)

The following questions can be used for Small Group discussions or for personal reflection:

1. Take some time and slowly read through Psalm 22. What are your initial thoughts or questions? What stands out to you?
2. How have you experienced injustice in your life? How did you respond? Did you question God concerning it?
3. How is your relationship with God right now? How can you improve it and grow deeper?
4. Think of the suffering that Jesus experienced willingly... for you. Describe your feelings when you think about this.
5. Jesus won the victory! How has Jesus displayed this in your own life? The obvious answer is how he forgives and conquers our sin, but what about the little things? How has Jesus displayed victory in those parts of your life?
6. In what ways are you praising God today? What has he done today for which you are thankful?
7. Jesus will reign forever. How does this impact your day-to-day life? Are you ready to go there with him?
8. For further study, read and discuss the following Scriptures (used in today's message): Psalm 22; Matthew 27:27-54; John 17:1-5; 1 Corinthians 15:3-8; Hebrews 12:2, 2:9-12; Romans 8:31-39.
