

Anticipation

Living In Light Of Eternity

Walk Worthy

1 Thessalonians 2:10-12

Sermon Notes | Jeff Randleman | March 30, 2025

ANTICIPATION
ANTICIPATION
ANTICIPATION
ANTICIPATION

For you know how, like a father with his children, we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

- 1 Thessalonians 2:11-12 (ESV)

How To Walk Worthy:

In Your Integrity:

Holy

Righteous

Blameless

In Your Instruction:

Exhort

Encourage

Charge

Anticipation

Living In Light Of Eternity

Walk Worthy

1 Thessalonians 2:10-12

Discussion Questions | Jeff Randleman | March 30, 2025

For you know how, like a father with his children, we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

- 1 Thessalonians 2:11-12 (ESV)

Matters for Reflection and Discussion:

1. What does it mean to walk worthy of God, and why is this an important calling for believers?
2. How do holiness, righteousness, and blamelessness each contribute to a life of integrity?
3. Why is it important for Christians to strive for blamelessness, even if they are not perfect?
4. In what ways can our personal integrity serve as a witness to the world around us?
5. How does exhortation help believers stay faithful in their walk with God?
6. What role does encouragement play in the spiritual growth of others, and how can we actively encourage fellow believers?
7. What does it mean to charge others to live for God, and how can we do so effectively without being overbearing?
8. How can we balance both living a worthy life and instructing others without hypocrisy?
9. Can you share a time when someone exhorted, encouraged, or charged you in your faith? How did it impact you?
10. What are some practical steps you can take this week to grow in integrity and help instruct others in their walk with God?